Title

Predictable Long-Term Implant & Soft Tissue Aesthetics: Optimising the Biology

Abstract

This presentation will outline the contemporary surgical and prosthetic concepts in management of implants in the aesthetic zone with a view to achieving optimum long-term aesthetics and stability. The emphasis will be on the clinical management and an understanding and application of the biological factors that influence our treatment outcomes. Management of bone, soft tissue and prosthetics contours and materials all play a key part in the aesthetic outcome and long-term stability of soft tissue aesthetics.

Participants will:

- Learn the key elements in the surgical & prosthetic management of implant restoration of missing and failing teeth in the aesthetic zone
- Gain an understanding of the biology of the peri-implant tissues
- Comprehend the behaviour of the bone & soft tissues in edentulous sites, post-extraction sites and around dental implants
- Learn the principles of bone and soft tissue management around implants, as well as how to manage bone and soft tissue defects in post-extraction sites and peri-implant defects
- Gain insight into the influence of transmucosal materials as well as novel implant and prosthetic component surface technology
